

BIO:

Talia Keys & The Love is a foot-stomping, jaw-dropping soul-funk-rock n' roll band born after the charismatic front-woman, Talia Keys. Her killer line-up is a host of powerhouse musicians based out of Utah with songwriter Talia Keys on lead guitar and vocals, the impeccable jam band veteran Dave Brogan (ALO) on drums, Ryan Conger (Joe McQueen Quartet) rippin the keys, Josh Olsen tearin up the bass, and the incomparable Lisa Giacoletto adding soaring backing vocals. Having just dropped their first album last year (We're Here, 4/20/2018), TK + <3 is here and ready to lift your spirits, elevate your hearts and minds, and above all, get you dancing.

Advocating for human rights Talia uses her music to convey a message of growth, awareness and love. Promoting compassion and respect for our Earth and one another. "Music is very healing. If I can inspire just one person a show, I feel I am doing something right!" - Talia
